

Whether you are a senior yourself or have a family member, neighbor or friend who's "not 29" anymore, SAVVY SENIOR is the show that focuses on bettering the quality of life for the elderly. Hosted by TODAY SHOW contributor Jim Miller, this hour long pledge special is a "must see" and a "will enjoy" because it gets to the heart of problems facing seniors coast to coast. Miller dispenses information about a wide range of subjects from Social Security to saving money, offering tips to better live life as a senior.

Using a Question and Answer format, SAVVY SENIOR provides solutions and insights. From household modifications to practical tips, Jim shares new items, websites and phone numbers. He even has a way of finding little known services that are free!

Don't worry if you miss anything from the show. SAVVY SENIOR offers a complete listing of contact information. If it's help you need, Jim will track down the resource.

Jim's easy to understand answers are fun and folksy, making him a very watchable and lively host. A nationally known newspaper columnist, this Oklahoman is proud of the quality of the Cutters Productions special.
